Elizabeth (Libby) Margaret Lovis

Surrounded by her family, Libby passed away very peacefully after a courageous battle with cancer at Victoria General Hospital on October 30, 2026.

She will be greatly missed by her family including Eric after 55 years of marriage, their children Alexandra and Andrew, as well as her grandchildren Meaghan and Tom.

Despite serious illnesses during her lifetime she remained a devoted wife, mother and grandmother. Libby was born in Southborough, Kent, England on April 24, 1948. She flew to Tripoli, Libya with her parents Peter and Isabel in December 1969 and met Eric at a private party on her 22nd birthday. Her family left Tripoli in the summer of 1970. At this time Eric decided to resign his position and returned home. He then proposed to Libby and married her on 30th November 1970. The next 20 years were spent in Surrey, supporting her family while Eric underwent regular business trips to Europe, Africa and the US.

The family emigrated to Canada in 1990 when a business opportunity presented itself. Libby continued all these years to be the heart of the family. Her love of gardening included a beautiful one in their Qualicum Beach home and there were always cats and dogs around. The final move was to Victoria in 2016.

Libby’s many interests also included quilting, stitching, photography, and jigsaws.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.
