Brian Russell Holker

Brian Holker was born on February 27, 1945. After battling with a respiratory ailment for several months, Brian passed away on the morning of December 23, 2020 peacefully in the comfort of his home overlooking Cadboro Bay. A home Brian had built on a property originally owned by his grandparents in the neighbourhood where he had spent the majority of his life.

Predeceased by his father Lou, mother June and brother Daryl. He is survived by his loving partner of 40 years, Diane Cameron; her daughters Cheryl and Kelly; his daughters Jacquelyn and Jeannine and their children Chai, Maeve, Matsya and Dala. Brian was an avid classic car guy. His collection and knowledge were well known and respected in the trade and his passion for restorations and impeccable attention to detail led to being invited to adjudicate and opine on many vintage autos. An original “Cadboro Bay Boy”. Brian will be missed by his many friends and acquaintances.

Moe i ka maluhia. Rest in Peace.
