Madison Ann Wruth

Madison Ann Wruth, daughter, sister, granddaughter, niece, and friend, lost her life on September 23, 2023.

Her tragic loss is felt by many, including her mother, Meagan Wruth, her sisters, Meghan (Brea) Soldier and Brooklyn Evans, Trinity Antoine, and Jazlynne Smith and her brother Alphonso Antoine Jr. Her grandmothers, Cindy Wruth and Ann Evans, great grandparents Eleanor and Gerald Buechler. She is also survived by her biological father, Alphonso Antoine, numerous aunts and uncles, siblings and many friends and extended family members.

Madison was predeceased by her beloved grandfathers, Poppa Brian and Reagan Wruth, father, Bryce Evans, and cherished uncles Tyson Wruth and Tyler Evans, and her first family pet, Peanut.

Madison was happiest when she was creating art, listening to music, in nature, and surrounded by friends and loved ones. Her art was full of colour and depth and she had a technique that brought life to something plain. Madison was passionate about nature. She loved to hike and explore the forests on the island with her mom, sisters, and her dog Harley. She loved to visit the ocean with her dad, and they shared a love of music and playing guitar. Madison loved her friends deeply; her close friends Keagan Saleteski and Elyse Clifford will miss the joy and energy she brought to their lives.

True to Madison’s passion for protecting our natural environment and one day becoming one with the forest, her final resting place will be one where her body is naturally returned to the earth to generate new life. Loved ones will visit and feel Madison’s spirit at The Woodlands Royal Oak Burial Park where she will be buried.
