

Albert Douglas Kelly

Albert Douglas Kelly passed away on November 8, 2022, at the Royal Jubilee Hospital, Victoria BC. Albert was the son of the late Oswald Kelly and the late Charlotte Russell. He was predeceased by his wife, the late Yvette Mould. And he also leaves to mourn his passing, his children D'Arcy of the Philippines, and Leah of Vancouver.

Albert was predeceased by his step-mother Carmen Tremblay, his sister Helen, brothers, Arthur (late Germaine Beaulieu), Glen (late Lucienne Mathieu), and sisters, June Kelly and Gale Learning (late Allan Learning). He also leaves to mourn his passing, his siblings, Joseph (Beverly Taber Smith), Mary Kelly Brown (late Owen Brown), and Theresa Shea (Albert Shea), along with many nieces and nephews, relatives and friends.

Albert was larger than life to all. He was the founder of Kelly Carpet Cleaning and he had interests in many sports including sponsoring a local Youth Softball Team and cheering for his favourite teams the Montreal Alouettes and Chicago Blackhawks.

End of life celebrations for local family and friends have taken place.

A Celebration of Albert's Life will be held in Spring of 2023, in Victoria, B.C.

To honour his memory, donations can be made to the Canadian Breast Cancer Foundation, for Breast Cancer Research. We wish to give special thanks to the staff of Palliative Care, at the Royal Jubilee Hospital, for their compassion and care in which they gave Albert.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.
