

Amar Kaur Gill (nee Johl)

February 2, 1934 – June 18, 2009

Amar passed away peacefully at the Royal Jubilee Hospital after a lengthy and courageous battle with cancer. Amar was born in the Village of Jundiala District of Jullandar, Punjab, India and has resided in Victoria for over fifty years. She is survived by her loving husband of fifty four years, Sardul S. Gill, daughter Amir K. Gill and sons, Kevin S. Gill, Robin S. Gill and Stephen S. Gill. She is also survived by her brother Umrao S. Johl and sister Bakhshish K. Kang. Amar was predeceased by her brother Bakhshish S. Johl. Amar was a loving mother and wife and was very involved with her family, her church and community affairs. She was very active in physical activities such as yoga, swimming and her daily walks. She loved to travel and did travel the world with her family and friends. Regardless of the situation, she always put other peoples' needs ahead of her own. She was generous with her time and affections and enjoyed her busy life. Amar's home was always open to family and her many life-long friends. The family would like to thank Dr's. McLean and Chow and their supportive staff.

A Memorial Service will be held in MCCALL BROS. FLORAL CHAPEL, Johnson & and Vancouver Streets on Monday, June 22, 2009 at 10:30 a.m. Following the service, there will be a church service held at the Sikh Temple, Topaz and Blackwood Streets. In lieu of flowers, a donation to the Canadian Cancer Society or the Heart & Stroke Foundation will be greatly appreciated.
