Elworthy, Angela Mary (nee Poppleton) 84yr

Peacefully, with daughters by her side on March 22, 2009 at her home in Sunrise Senior Living of Victoria. Angela was born in London, England on October 2, 1924. In 1934 she moved with her family to Buenos Aires, Argentina where her father was Harbour Master (Royal Mail Lines). It was in Buenos Aires where she later met her Canadian husband, Gordon. They married in 1948 and resided in Vancouver and Victoria, BC. She was predeceased by her parents, Herbert and Ethel; husband, Gordon and brother, Edwin. Survived by daughters, Susan Crober (Paul), Jane Elworthy (Lorne), Christine Elworthy; grandchildren, Peter, Geoffrey, Lauren, and James; brother-in-law, Donald (Shirley) Elworthy; sister-in law, Betty-Joan Elworthy and many nieces and nephews in Australia and Canada. Also, remembered by close family friends Betty Tran and Lala Lam.

While raising her family she volunteered many years with the Girl Guide movement and at the Pearkes Clinic. After her husbands passing, Angela carried on with the family property management business and continued to volunteer and be a benefactor for many charities – in particular, Anglican Church Threshold Society and Habitat for Humanity.

She will be remembered for her unassuming demeanor, clever insights, sharp wit, and amazing phrases of wisdom.
