

Anna Frances Wootton

Anna died peacefully August 6, 2012, in her 81st year. A devoted daughter and sister, she is survived by her sister, Carol and numerous cousins. She was a member of a pioneer family, her great-grandfather, Captain Henry Wootton having arrived in Victoria in 1859. She followed her grandfather, Edward and her father, Robert in a career in law. Anna practiced with her father until he was appointed to the BC Supreme Court in 1961. She then joined the law firm of Pearlman Lindholm where she practised for many years and before retiring, she returned to independent practice in the Central Building. Anna was a talented amateur actress and was active with the UBC Players Club in the 1950s. With a strong social conscience, Anna supported the Anglican Primate's World Relief Fund and Women In Need in Victoria. Donations to either of these charities will be welcome.

A service will be held in St. Matthias Anglican Church, 600 Richmond Avenue, Friday, August 17 at 3:00 pm. Condolences may be offered below.
