

Anna Kay

Passed away suddenly on May 11, 2013 at the age of 90. She will be lovingly remembered by her youngest brother, Bill (Helen) and nieces, Sarah and Jennifer (James) and her great-nephew, Theodore. She will be sadly missed by the rest of the family members near and far. She was predeceased by her parents, 2 brothers, and 3 sisters. Anna was a veteran, having served as a member of the Royal Navy's Wrens during WWII. Following that, she was a maternity nurse in Motherwell and Largs, Scotland, and then a homecare nurse when she moved to Victoria in 1985.

The Funeral Service will take place on Friday, May 17, 2013 at 2:00 p.m. at McCall's Downtown, Johnson & Vancouver Streets followed by interment at Royal Oak Burial Park. Condolences may be offered to the family below.
