

Anne Lietz

Anne passed away peacefully, while sleeping, at Victoria General Hospital, with her two children, Norine Hale and Cordell Lietz, at her bedside.

Born in Minitonas, Manitoba, Anne was the middle child of a family of 15. Her parents, Lazar and Jean Filuk, immigrated to Canada from Ukraine in the late 1920's. Anne grew up on a farm in Swan River, Manitoba where she met and married her husband, Arnold Lietz. They later moved to Calgary, Alberta where Arnold founded a successful residential development business and Anne became a successful realtor.

Upon retirement Anne moved to NanOOSE Bay, B.C. where she enjoyed the views of the ocean, the whales and the bald eagles. Her passion was the game of golf, where she excelled at the nearby Fairwinds Golf Club, becoming the Ladies Club Champion.

She later moved to Victoria, B.C. to be close to her daughter and grandchildren, where she lived out her life. Anne is survived by her two children and three grandchildren; Hannah Hale, Cordell Lietz Jr. and Neala Hale. Per Anne's request, there will not be a memorial service.

Her family thanks everyone for their heartfelt condolences and support.
