

Anne Malish

Passed away peacefully at The Lodge at Broadmead on December 14, 2012. She went to be with her Lord at the age of 98 years. Born in Pathlow, Saskatchewan on July 12, 1914. Predeceased by her husband, Fred Malish, her former husband, John Sr. and her son, John Jr. Shumka. Lovingly remembered by her son, Rick Shumka (Bridget); Pat Shumka; her god-child, Mary-Ann Korolyk and grandchildren, Travis (Kim), Candice (Chris) and John Jason and great-grandchildren; Jake, Evan and Brooke.

Anne was active in the Ukrainian community receiving recognition as one of the founding members of the St. Nicholas Church. She volunteered over 25 years of bookkeeping for Ukrainian Trident Senior Citizen's and also fundraising for the Ukrainian Cultural Centre. In the early years Anne was a teacher in Saskatchewan, where she met and married John Sr. and had two loving sons, John and Rick. John sadly passed away early in their marriage. She was fortunate to later marry Fred Malish and they enjoyed over 50 years of happiness together.

Anne loved family and tradition. She was the foundation of all family gatherings. Good perogies, cabbage rolls, special Easter traditional breads and she kept the Ukrainian heritage alive, her sons, grandchildren and great grandchildren were proud of their family origins.

Prayers will be offered at McCall's Downtown, Johnson & Vancouver St. on Wednesday, December 19th at 7:00 p.m. Funeral Service officiated by Father William Hann at McCall's Downtown at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, December 20th with a reception to follow. Interment will follow at Royal Oak Burial Park. Condolences may be offered to the family below.

McCall Bros. Funeral Home

www.mccallbros.com