

Anne Margaret Fletcher

Passed away July 17, 2009, in hospital after a short illness. Predeceased by her loving parents, Roy Archibald and Katherine Mary (nee Keeble); survived by two sisters, Mary and Katherine and brother, Roy. She will also be missed by her friend, Gareth Alan Mayhew. Born in Victoria, she lived on Quadra Island for several years before returning to Victoria. Anne was an active member of several social service organizations. She was the founder of the St. Andrew Chapter of the Canadian Catholic Organization for Development and Peace, an early director of the Fairfield Community Association, a founder and publisher of the Fairfield Community Press, a founding director of the Waterside Housing Co-op, and a founding director of the Friends of Beacon Hill Park. Gentle Anne had many friends among cats, raccoons, crows, seagulls, and other birds.

Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at St. Jean Baptiste, 301 Richmond Avenue, on Thursday, July 23, 2009 at 12:00 Noon. Interment will follow in the family plot at Ross Bay Cemetery.
