

Anthony “Tony” Gruber

Tony passed away suddenly due to a heart attack surrounded by his family on November 13, 2019 in Victoria, BC. He was also born in Victoria on November 15, 1972.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 21 years, Eldora; two beautiful daughters Brianna and Alyssa; mother Nancy Gruber; sister Tanja Gruber; mother and father-in-law Eugenio and Gisela Ferreira; brother-in-law Eugenio Ferreira; and fur babies Roxy, Ivy and Misha.

Tony worked for 32 years as an electrician, most recently for Anfield Electric. The simple things in life gave him joy – Timmie’s coffee and going for walks with his puppy dogs. Above all else, Tony’s greatest pleasure was the time spent with his family and friends.

A Celebration of Tony’s Life will be held in the Sequoia Centre at McCall Gardens, 4665 Falaise Drive on Sunday, November 24, 2019 at 2:00 pm.

The Gruber family wishes to extend their sincere gratitude to the first responders and BC Ambulance for all of their help and support.
