

Barbara MacDougall

Barbara Marienna (Hallmann) MacDougall was born in Hanover Germany June 20, 1951. At 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ she and her parents immigrated to Canada. Barbara spent her childhood in Edmonton and while on a summer job met her soul mate Trevor. After a short courtship, they were married and recently celebrated 50 years of happily being married.

After a two-year battle with ALS, she passed on Sunday, October 24, 2021 due to complications.

She is survived by her husband Trevor, her son Scott with grandchildren Addison and Spencer, and her son Kevin with grandchildren Kaden, Cohen, and Ryden.

She will be remembered forever for her happy and friendly smile, her positive attitude and her unconditional love for all her family.

THERE IS NO PLACE LIKE HOME, EXCEPT MAYBE GAMIE'S.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.

McCall Gardens

www.mccallgardens.com