Cassandra Denise Michelle Brown

Born in Vancouver, BC on November 28, 1969; Cassandra moved on, freed from her courageous battle with ovarian cancer on October 12, 2010. She never lost her zest for life through these past two years. Cassandra will be deeply missed by her parents, Doug and Cathy Brown; her twin sister, Candace Brown and especially her young niece, Caitlin Olson. “Auntie Cassie was fun. We loved her.” Also left to grieve and grow from Cassandra’s tremendous spirit are her loyal and loving extended family, true friends from early childhood and those gathered throughout her short but meaningful lifetime. Cassandra was a true free spirit who made the best of each day and each experience. She was generous and loved people, all animals, helping others, laughing, travelling, camping, shopping for a bargain, clothes, shoes, purses, jewellry, cooking, nail art, Betty Boop and her truck. She had natural artistic abilities. So important to her was the amazing care from Dr. Michels, Dr. Soulier, Dr. Margaret Smith, chemo nurses, Caly, Marie and Ana Maria, nurse Jo in RP1 and the beautiful and respectful staff and volunteers at Victoria Hospice for ensuring Cassandra’s last weeks were full of grace and dignity.

No service by request. Private celebration of her life at a later date. Cassandra believed strongly in the need to raise the profile of ovarian cancer. Please consider a donation in her memory to BC Cancer Agency information and research or Victoria Hospice Society. Condolences may be offered to the family at www.mccallbros.com.
