

Charlie White

July 7, 1925 to January 29, 2010

Gone Fishin'

Charlie passed away on January 29th at the Saanich Peninsula Hospital after suffering a stroke December 14th en-route to a family vacation. Charlie is survived by his devoted wife of 22 years, Darlene and sons; Chad, Kevin (Leslie), David (Karen), step-son Jay (Theresa), step-daughter Brandy, as well as grandchildren Emily, Celia, Tesja, Zachary, Kai, Simone, Justine, Rhea and Courtney. He is pre-deceased by his brother, Gordie (Laverne). We would like to extend our sincere thanks to the doctors, volunteers and especially nurses of the Palliative Care Unit of Saanich Peninsula hospital. You truly made this most difficult time for Charlie and our family easier to bear. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations can be made to the Saanich Peninsula Hospital Foundation, 2166 Mt Newton X Roads, Saanichton, BC, V8M 2B2. www.sphf.ca . Charlie's family, friends, students, fans, readers and fellow fishermen (and women) meant the world to him. You cannot know how much he enjoyed the letters, photos, and fish stories he'd received over the years. We would love to hear how he's touched your lives at darlenepwhite@gmail.com. Besides, Charlie always loved having an audience. Charlie White's Memorial Service: A Celebration of his life Mary Winspear Center, Sidney, BC, The Bodine Family Hall 1 pm, Friday, February 5th.
