

Cyril Nasim

With heavy but grateful hearts, we announce the passing of Cyril Nasim in his beloved Victoria home, surrounded by his precious family.

Cyril was born in Gujrat, Pakistan in 1933, and immigrated to Canada in 1962 to complete a Ph.D. at the University of Saskatchewan. After following his supervisor to Trent University, he met the love of his life, Moira, in 1964, and they soon married. Cyril and Moira moved to Calgary where Cyril taught mathematics at the University of Calgary for 31 years and latterly at the University of Victoria. He was a well-loved professor and a respected colleague.

Cyril was a gentleman and a gentle man. He was a humble soul who eschewed any attention brought upon himself. All who knew and loved Cyril describe him as a fine man, with a kind heart, and sharp mind. In his own quiet way, Cyril committed himself to helping others, whether it was volunteering at First Metropolitan United Church, Our Place, or Habitat for Humanity. In his spare time during his long retirement in Victoria, he tended his beautiful garden and enjoyed golfing, reading, Sudokus, crosswords, and especially walking anywhere near the ocean.

Cyril is survived by three sisters, two brothers, and their families, all of whom adored and admired him. He loved his family beyond measure and will be sadly missed by his siblings, wife of 59 years, three children and their partners, and five grandchildren. All will miss his enduring and tender love, not to mention his famous chicken curry.

A Celebration of Life will be held in the Sequoia Centre at McCall Gardens, 4665 Falaise Drive, Victoria, BC on June 6, 2026, at 2:00pm.
