

Digby Kier

Born on June 17, 1936 in Victoria, BC and passed away suddenly in Vancouver, BC October 3, 2023. Digby grew up in a Caycuse logging camp on Lake Cowichan where his parents Josephine and William farmed not knowing that it was located close to the highest rainfall in North America!

Digby attended UBC earning a law degree and practicing as an accomplished federal prosecutor for over 50 years, retiring at 80. During his tenure, he was instrumental in the establishment of the many environmental laws we have today.

He will be missed by his children Tim and Robin, spouses, grandchildren and numerous friends. Condolences may be offered to the family below.
