

Donald (Don) Laurence Giles

Surrounded by the love of his family and friends, Don passed away peacefully after a short, but brave struggle with cancer. Don will be remembered as a true West-Coaster, a respected fisherman for over 30 years and an integral part of the Victoria Blues Family. Don could not walk down the street without running into someone he knew.

Always a smile

Always a handshake

Always a story

Always a joke

Always a smoke

Always ready, Always late!

Don loved life, family, friends and of course the dogs, Luke and Leika. Dad, we love you, miss you and will remember you always. Kisses from Laina! Predeceased by his father, Laurence (April 2008). Survived by his mother, Mai; children, Madeleine (Kim), Lexi (Chad), Michael; granddaughter Laina and his brother, Ken.
