

Donna Patricia “Pat” Robbie

On March 6, 2016, our creative, funny and generous Pat went peacefully to heaven to be with her Lord and Saviour. She leaves her daughter, Samantha Jayne; her mother, Carolyn and father, Donald (Jacquie) Medland. Born the middle of seven children, Pat also leaves behind: brothers, Don (Connie) Medland and their children, Christopher, Kaitlin and Lindsay, Ron Medland and Michael Medland; sisters, Linda (Jeff) Davis, Susan (Greg) McKelvie and their son, Ryan (Kimberly) McKelvie; stepbrother, Michael (Lisa) Dunsmuir and children, Curtis and Aidan; stepsisters, Carlie (Steve) Vanschaik and son, Nathan, Jean (Tim) O’Gorman and children, Grayson, Ella and Fia. She was loved by her large family and many, many assorted friends of all ages.

“I married at the age of 20 and this union resulted in my greatest and proudest achievement, my daughter Samantha Jayne. I found great joy in sharing in her accomplishments, eating a bowl of cereal together and vacationing together. She will always be my baby. She worked for what she got. Smart girl.

I had many joyous times in my rich life here, including my years with Samantha’s dance class making costumes, my times sewing original clothes for many brides and my friends, attending operas, participating in the TC 10k, line dancing, attending naked ballet (as an observer only), rock climbing and attending book club. Making dresses for the little girls in my life gave me immense pleasure. I loved to read (a lot), to stay informed about current events and to have interesting conversations.

I was an intelligence analyst for 25 years working in organized crime moving eventually to private work. My co-workers were some of the best.

Finally, I would like to give a rich and complete thank you to those friends and my sister, Susan, who all stayed with me, day after day in my final weeks, serving my every whim."

Pat's family would like to thank Dr. Karen Klingenberg, Dr. Dean Kolodziejczyk and the nursing staff of the Oncology unit at the Royal Jubilee Hospital and the Doctors and staff of the Victoria Hospice.

A celebration of life will be held on Saturday, March 19, 2016 at 1:30 pm at Central Baptist Church.

Donations in Pat's name may be made to the charity of your choice or to cancer research.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.
