

Douglas John Grondahl

Doug was born in Vancouver, B.C. on September 23, 1958. He died in Victoria, B.C. at the Royal Jubilee Hospital on October 1st, 2021. He was 63. Predeceased by his father Gordon Grondahl in 1993; he is survived by his mother Shirley Barton, brothers David Grondahl (Susan) and Craig Barton, sister Susan Grondahl, nephew Carter, nieces Laura and Rylee, as well as many other relatives. Doug was extremely knowledgeable. A collector of many unique and wonderful things. He loved old TV shows and had a keen interest – while growing up – in Europe. He travelled to many of the places he once only dreamed about. He was kind and generous and had a wonderful sense of humour. He was loved and respected. Doug was kindly and respectfully treated by everyone at the Royal Jubilee Hospital including his doctor, Kewan Aboulhosn. To honour Doug please take the time to learn more about a disease called Sarcoidosis. Condolences may be offered to the family below.
