

Dr. Trevor Lloyd Jones

JONES Dr. Trevor Lloyd D.V.M., M.Sc., LL.D. – Peacefully on November 25, 2009, in Victoria, in his 101st year. He is survived by his loving wife, Marjorie; her children and grandchildren; step-children and their families; many friends and relatives in Victoria, Ontario, Wales and England. Trevor came to Canada in 1926, coming to B.C., working at the U 5 Ranch in Edgewater. At this time he decided to pursue a career in Veterinary Medicine, also serving in the Canadian Army during the Second World War. Thereafter he returned to Edmonton, becoming the first Provincial Animal Pathologist for Alberta. In 1952, he became the Dean of Veterinary Medicine at the University of Guelph, retiring in 1974. Trevor was a member of the World Health Organization, travelling in several world regions, as a Consultant in Veterinary Education. He was very supportive of Save the Children, the Edward Johnson Music Foundation, the Guelph Little Theatre and the Rotary Club of Guelph and Victoria. Private Cremation. Flowers are gratefully declined; tributes, if desired, may be made to Save the Children Fund, 4141 Yonge Street, Suite 300, Toronto, ON. M2P 2A8.
