

E. May Porter (nee Lumley)

May passed away peacefully on April 15, 2014 at the age of 101 $\frac{1}{2}$. She was born in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, England and came to Victoria with her family in April 1923 where she lived the rest of her life. May was predeceased by her husband, Dick, in 1968. She was a feisty little lady up to the end. May is survived by her niece and cousins.

The family would like to thank the staff at Amica at Douglas House and Douglas Care for their loving care of May.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.
