

Edith Cicely Shore

Cicely passed away peacefully in Victoria on Nov. 1, 2009. Born March 20, 1925 in Tudhoe, England, Cicely was the only daughter of the late Thomas and Edith Mitchell of Yorkshire and is predeceased by her brothers Tom and Peter. She married Cyril in Stokesley, Yorkshire, in 1946 and they moved to Canada with their young family in 1962. They lived in Sorel, Quebec, for 23 years before moving to Victoria in 1985. Cyril died in 1997. Cicely's selfless and gentle nature was her trademark, as was her love for her children and their families. Cicely is survived by her sons Ian (Juli) and Brian (Kathy), daughter Valerie, grandchildren Sarah (Jason), Kate (Corey), Erin, John, Graham, Andrew and Megan and great-grandchildren Ian, Sydney, Justin, Jacob and Stokesley. She will also be missed by many relatives and friends across Canada and around the world, including sisters-in-law Jean in Nova Scotia and Phyllis in England, and brother-in-law Harry (Ada) in England, and their families. In Victoria, her close circle included the Foord family, headed by Ted and his late wife Meg, and dear friends John and Sheila Coates.

Cicely's family sincerely thanks the staff at Victoria's Douglas Care Community for their compassionate care during her final years, and especially in the last week.

A service celebrating Cicely's life will be held on Friday, December 11 at 2 p.m. at McCall Bros. Floral Chapel, Johnson and Vancouver St. in Victoria. No flowers please, just your fond memories.
