

Edmund James Barry Nagle

Barry Nagle was born on November 1, 1935, in Kimberly, British Columbia. He grew up surrounded by nature and the Rocky Mountains. He explored the wilderness with his father who taught him all about hunting, fishing, and living in the great outdoors.

Many of his past students mentioned the significant impact Barry had on their lives and how they are deeply saddened by his passing. He later moved to Victoria B.C. where he spent the remainder of his days golfing, fishing, enjoying art shows, and spending time with his family.
