

Elizabeth Grassick (Harding)

Elizabeth passed away peacefully at Mount St. Mary's Hospital on Saturday, August 3, 2019. She was born on December 26, 1930 in Winnipeg, Manitoba. Elizabeth moved with her parents Christy and Augusta Harding to Victoria as a young girl, where she attended St. Anne's Academy from kindergarten through grade 12.

A year or two at Victoria College preceded Elizabeth going into training at St. Joseph's General Hospital. As a nurse, she would eventually marry Ross Sinclair, who as a doctor had privileges at St. Joseph's Hospital.

During her working life, Elizabeth was involved in nursing and was the head nurse for the nuns at their retirement home also in the Victoria area for many years.

Elizabeth is survived by her son, Christopher Sinclair; his wife, Pene; and Christopher's children, Spencer, Kristin and Chelsea. With thanks to Kristin, there are also two grandchildren, namely Kennedy (age 3) and Sutton (age 2 weeks).

The family wishes to thank the staff at Mount St. Mary's Hospital for taking such good care of Elizabeth during her final few years.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.
