She was a remarkable woman who faced many challenges and new chapters throughout her life always without regret or complaint, quietly and confidently rising to embrace every step of her journey. Her spirit, strength and goodness will live on in our hearts and remind us to embrace each new day as a blessing, an opportunity and a celebration. We are all better people for having had her in our lives.

We welcome everyone to join us for a service celebrating Bernice's life to be held at Saint Patrick's Parish, 2060 Haultain Street, on Friday, March 8, 2019 at 12:10 pm followed by a gathering in the Lady of Lords Hall to share a cup of tea and our fond memories of an extraordinary woman.
