Frances loved and was loved. She enjoyed hunting and travelling with her husband, grew fresh vegetables for her family, loved to entertain and was the best baker "bar none". On her artistic side, she made and decorated beautiful wedding cakes. Thank you Mom from all of us.

A memorial service will be planned at a later date. In lieu of flowers, the family requests tributes be made to the Alzheimer's Society.

We also extend a heartfelt thank you to the staff at Gorge Road Hospital for their dedicated care.
