Passed away peacefully in her home at the Wellesley of Victoria. Gladys is predeceased by her brothers Alfred and William; her sister Laura and Dorothy and a niece Pat Coulter. She is survived by nephew Richard Bramley-Moore of Sydney, Australia; nieces Helen Sanderson and Mary Anne Kinloch of Victoria; 12 great nieces and nephews; 9 great great nieces and nephews.

Born in Lloydminster, Alberta, Gladys moved to Edmonton in 1910 and lived there until 1992. At 18 she began teaching school in rural one-room schools. Then in 1931 Gladys was pleased to be accepted on the staff of Edmonton Public School Board, retiring in 1971. She was a well respected teacher and assistant principal.

Gladys enjoyed a very full life, filled with world travel, clubs, sports and many friends. On moving to Victoria, Gladys quickly engaged in community activities making fine new friends. A social, self-reliant, generous person, truly a 'great' aunt to all.

We would like to express our sincere gratitude for all the loving care, friendship and joy given to Gladys over the last 8 years by the Wellesley of Victoria Staff and her friends. For this last week a special thank you to the care givers at Beacon Services and the nurses and counsellor from Hospice Palliative Care Team.

A Memorial Service will be held at McCall Bros. Floral Chapel, Johnson & Vancouver St., on Friday February 12 at 1:00 pm. In lieu of flowers you may make a donation in Gladys name to Victoria Hospice, 1510 Fort St., Victoria BC, V8S 5J2.

Inurnment in Edmonton at a later date.
