

Glenn William Fairgrave Oliphant

July 30, 1931 – August 6, 2015

Glenn passed away peacefully after a struggle with Parkinson's Disease. Glenn was born in Calgary to parents, David and Elsie Oliphant and grew up in Victoria. He graduated from Victoria High School in 1949 and worked at Standard Furniture for many years. In 1981 he became a founding partner in Design Associates and had a long and distinguished career in the interior design profession, being appointed to Professional Membership in The National Society of Interior Designers, New York City, and the Interior Designer's Institute of British Columbia.

Glenn was involved in the Scout Movement for many years, becoming a Rover and Queen's Scout and attending jamborees around the world.

He loved classical music and was an accomplished organist, playing in many churches in the Victoria area.

Glenn leaves behind sisters, Barbara Dawson of Nanaimo and Carolle McIntosh of Victoria; brother, Ken and sister-in-law, Lorraine of Alberta; sister-in-law, Kathryn Oliphant of Victoria; eleven nieces and nephews and many grand nieces and nephews, as well as long time friend Bob Ferguson. He was predeceased by his parents and his brother, Alan.

The family would like to thank the staff at Selkirk Place and Berwick Royal Oak for their kind care of Glenn.

No service by request. Condolences may be offered to the family below.
