

Gordon Howard Semple

December 20, 1935 – January 16, 2015

Born in Vancouver, and attended school in Kerrisdale. He later worked for Cyclone Taylor Sporting Goods before moving with his wife and family, to Nanaimo to work for Sears. In 1998, he retired in Victoria after 31 years with the company. He is predeceased by his son Gordon Andrew in 1986. He will be greatly missed by his loving wife of 57 years, Ann and daughters, Deborah (Cliff), Dawn (Jorgen), Liana (Jonathan) and Glennys (Richard). He is also survived by his 11 grandchildren and brother, Randall (Margaret). The family would like to thank Dr. Horgan and the PD nurses on the renal floor at the Royal Jubilee Hospital and the nurses at Hospice for their loving care.

He will always be remembered for his long drives exploring the back roads, his love of swimming, the many stories of his adventures growing up in Vancouver, his sense of humour and love for his family. Condolences may be offered to the family below.

McCall Bros. Funeral Home

www.mccallbros.com