

Harry Frederick Charles Street

Born January 30, 1936, Harry Street died on July 13, 2023, predeceased by his brother David (Estelle Guertin Gervais Street) and special brother Peter.

Before age 20, Harry owned and operated the Oakville Trafalgar Window Cleaning Business while playing goalie for the Lakeshore Merchants. He became a Salvation Army Officer in 1959, as did his first wife Carol Buckley, mother of their two sons, Benjamin Charles Barby (Beth Curley) and Peter Norman Barby (Cindy Grant.) Harry completed his undergraduate degrees at McMaster as a mature student, and a Masters in Social Work (McGill) in 1980. He worked as a counsellor in mental health and rehabilitation; as a manager in youth corrections for Boys' Farm and Training School (Shawbridge), White Oaks Village (Hagersville), and Oakville Syl Apps Centre (Oakville); and as a board member for the Hamilton John Howard and Sudbury Youth Services. After completing contracts as Field Coordinator of Placements (School of Social Work Laurentian University), he became a full-time faculty spouse and landlord in Victoria.

Harry lived a life full of work and learning; adventures and illnesses; caring for others and exploring. He especially enjoyed sharing meals, music, games, sports, and long conversations in homes he renovated in the Maritimes, Quebec, Ontario and British Columbia. He kept his vehicles in good repair for work and road trips throughout North America. Harry loved to take things apart and see how they worked: he was a persistent audiophile.

Harry will be deeply missed by his wife Marjory Reitsma-Street. He will be fondly remembered by friends and family for his listening presence and wise questions, and for his stories, laughter, and choice words.

Thank you for the steadfastness of Dr. Shaun Humphreys, David, Brigitte, and Stephanie in the past years, and the calm end of life care of the Victoria Hospice Staff.

The Memorial Service will be held on Sunday, July 30, 2023, at 2:00 pm, in the Sequoia Centre, at McCall Gardens, 4665 Falaise Drive, Victoria. Private interment in Victoria , British Columbia, and Oakville, Ontario.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.

McCall Gardens

www.mccallgardens.com