Hilary Breanna Ribeiro

In search of answers to life’s questions, may Hilary find comfort and peace in the Lord’s open arms. Hilary was known for her free spirit and bubbly personality; anyone could talk to her. She would always be there to help people out, talk to them and be a good listener to people’s struggles or hardships. Organizing a clothing drive at the local park to help those in need, she would go down and speak to people at tent city about life’s hardships.

An avid beach goer, she would go down there to unwind, relax and often take pictures of nature’s landscapes. Whenever offered to go on outdoor adventures or camping trips, she would always be in for it. Along with her love for the outdoors, she also took interest in cooking delicious healthy meals.

She is predeceased by her Grandfathers Jose Pacheco and Eduardo Ribeiro. Hilary is survived by mother Gorette, father Louis and brother Matt; cousins Ivonette, Ashley, Sam, Talon, Rena; Aunts and Uncles Wendy & (Marcelo) Lazaro, Joe & (Cynthia) Pacheco, Eddie Ribeiro & (Kathy Lutz), Victor Ribeiro; Grandmothers Hedviges Pacheco and Noamia Ribeiro; as well as many other friends and family.

Her fun-loving personality, big smile will continue to live on in our hearts. God bless.
