

James Frederick Unger

Jim (James Frederick) Unger, born January 21, 1937, passed away suddenly in Victoria, B.C. on Saturday, May 26, 2012. Predeceased by his loving parents, James and Lilian Unger; brother and best friend, Robert (Bob) Unger. Survived by daughter, Karen (Dave) Gooda; grandsons, Robert and Daniel; daughter, Jenny (Graham) Hopkins; granddaughters, Jessica and Lucy. Jim will be sorely missed by his sister, Debbie and brother-in-law, Danny Parker of Victoria; sister, Shirley (Ron) Mann of Gananoque, Ontario; brother, Steve (Nene) Unger of London, England; nieces, Annalise (Dean) Sekyer, Susan (Dave) Barton of Gananoque, Ontario, Catherine and Stephanie Unger of London, England; nephews, Steve and Eddie Parker of Victoria; great-nephews, Logan and Benjamin Sekyer and Dylan, Zackery and Seth of Victoria and great-nieces, Nevaeh and Aidyn Parker of Victoria. Jim will also be missed by Shirley and Jim Fentiman (and family); Michaela and Brittany Starling of Victoria; Annabell and Randy Daniels (and family) of Ottawa; Flo Parker (and family) of London, England and many other close friends from Victoria, Ottawa and Nassau. Born in London, England, Jim led a very full life and before becoming famous for creating the cartoon Herman®, held jobs as a police officer, repo man, driving instructor and served in the British Army. For the past ten years, he has resided in Victoria, close to his family and friends. Jim really had the ability to make people laugh but best of all he was a loving, generous, loyal brother, uncle and friend who will remain in our hearts forever. Thank you to everyone that have been reaching out to Jim's family, we appreciate your support at this difficult time. Special thanks to the Saanich Police and emergency services for their care and support. For those wishing to express their condolences and share stories, there is a memorial page at: www.facebook.com/HERMANcomics.

A Funeral Service for family and friends will be held in
