James “Jim” White

It is with great sadness, that the family of Jim White announces his unexpected death at the Royal Jubilee Hospital in Victoria BC on October 25th, 2015.

Formerly of Quispamsis, Midland N.B. and most recently, Cobble Hill, BC, he was the son of the late Freeman and Dorothy White. His brother, Raymond; sister, Doreen; his daughter, Linda and his brother-in-law, Jim Baxter, predeceased him.

Jim is survived by his wife, Elsie of 60 years; his daughters, Cindy, Trudy and Karen (Rob); his sister, Verna Baxter; brother, Gerald (Treva) and brother-in-law, Alan Kelly; grandchildren, Tara, Keven, Alexa and Derek.

He was a carpenter for his entire career and worked in his early years as a foreman with Jack Atkins Ltd. and later enjoyed working as a private contractor. In retirement, he continued to enjoy carpentry by helping out family, friends and neighbours.

He enjoyed long road trips, relaxing and sunning on the deck, doing his puzzles, watching sports and spending time with his family including his beloved dog, Daisy.

A Funeral Service will be held in McCall Bros. Floral Chapel, Johnson & Vancouver Streets in Victoria, BC on Friday, October 30th, 2015 followed by a Memorial Service in Hampton, NB in Spring/Summer 2016.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.
