

James Morgan (James Nesbitt Cullingford)

Jim passed away at the Royal Jubilee Hospital on March 26, 2015 after a brief illness. He leaves behind his beloved step children Cary, Gary and Colleen McGinnis, grandchildren Kevin and Amber McGinnis and Kelsey Williams and great-grandchildren Davin Monyard, Bella Langerack and Minna Williams all of Victoria.

Jim was born in Victoria, September 19, 1941 to Agnes (Nesbitt) and John Mitchell Cullingford, the eldest of five children, John Cullingford, (Surrey), Pat Bratz (Calgary), Laurie Kaltio (Sechelt) and Frances Engst (Half Moon Bay).

As a young man he pursued his passion, earning his private pilot's license in a short three months with the assistance of his instructor, Gordon Jeune.

He later found a career in the ambulance business working for his close friend Neil Leard, owner of Garden City Ambulance, now BC Ambulance Service. The two of them could often be found with friends at the Cherry Bank Hotel.

He was a collector of classic cars and a member of the Cadillac Club of BC and the Vintage Car Club of Canada, Victoria Chapter.

He was a great father, the family historian, a best friend to many. He lived a full and happy life and he lived it his way.
