Jane McDermott Ross

Passed away peacefully after a short illness on May 22, 2015 at the Victoria Hospice, once a maternity ward of the Royal Jubilee Hospital where she was born on March 11, 1956. She will be dearly missed by her husband Brian Kelly, sons Brendan (Vivienne) Terence and Samuel, grandson Finn, brother Mark, sister Kathy and many extended family members and friends in Canada, Scotland and Ireland. Jane grew up in Victoria, attended Mt Douglas Secondary School and graduated with a BFA from UVic in 1977. She worked for the provincial government and later at the Canadian Centre for Architecture in Montreal before settling in North Vancouver where her boys were born. Jane spent most of the past 20 years living abroad in Dublin and achieved great success as a curator of numerous art exhibitions. She travelled extensively around Europe with her family and took real pleasure in exploring the art and culture wherever she went. Jane was a truly thoughtful, kind and cheerful person, beautiful in form and spirit, who was loved by everyone who knew her.

Her family would like to thank all of the staff at the Jubilee and especially the hospice nurses who cared for her so tenderly in her final days.

‘Solas na bhFlaitheas uirthi’

No service. A celebration of Jane’s life will be held at a later date.

McCall Bros. Funeral Home

www.mccallbros.com