

Jean-Pierre Leonard Joseph Arbour

Jean-Pierre known as Jack , passed away on Tuesday, January 26, 2021 at the age of 84. He died peacefully at Sidney All Care Residence in Sidney B.C. Born March 1, 1936 in Montreal, Quebec, Canada, Jack was the middle child and only son in his family. He joined Lloyds Bank and was stationed in South America. While working in El Salvador he met his future wife, Rosa Marvin Dreyfus Moises. They married in Montreal, Quebec, Canada, on March 30, 1963.

They lived in Trinidad, Colombia, Honduras, El Salvador, Ecuador, Guatemala, and New Jersey before moving to Victoria in 2003. Jack was a shrewd bank inspector, a dry wit, an avid reader, a lover of jazz and Latin music, a competitive cribbage player, and a faithful and loyal friend. He is survived by his children: Kim, David (Barbara), Stephen (Sara), Peter (Hiroko); and eight grandchildren. He will be deeply missed by his family and all who knew him. Special thanks to all who cared for Jack in his final days.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.
