

Joan Bondesen

Joan Bondesen, 94, of Victoria, BC died peacefully on January 10, 2016, at Berwick House in Saanich, BC. She was born on November 3, 1921 in York, England to Samuel and Lily Ankers, before immigrating to Canada as a child.

Joan was a riveter in WWII, before marrying Walter in 1945. Joan and Walter moved to Victoria, where they lived together for 70 years. While raising her family, Joan enjoyed singing in a choir, hiking with her walking group, playing bridge, and gardening. She was blessed with many good friends and neighbours. She made mouthwatering black current pie.

Joan was predeceased by her husband, and her son, Mark, and is survived by son, Jim (Carmen) and daughter, Kerry (Norm) as well as six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

The family wishes to thank the staff at Berwick House on Shelbourne Street, where Joan received excellent care in her final year.

A celebration of Joan's life will be held on Friday, February 19 at 2:30pm at McCall's Funeral Home, Johnson and Vancouver Streets, Victoria, BC.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.
