

John “Jack” A. Carmichael

CARMICHAEL John A. “Jack” – Suddenly the morning of February 18, 2009, while walking his cherished dog, Mikey. He is survived by Marcia, his dearly beloved wife of 41 years. He is also survived by his brother, Bob (Margaret); niece, Linda; his nephew, Douglas and many, many good friends. Jack was born in Victoria and attended Vic West School and later, Oak Bay High School. He graduated as a Chartered Accountant in 1965 and had an extensive career in Accounting. His lifetime passion was music, leading his own Band, playing solo piano and performing at many venues, including Butchart Gardens, the Empress Hotel and the Union Club. Marcia would like to express her deep gratitude to the 911 Operators, the Emergency Response Teams and the caring staff at the Saanich Peninsula Hospital Emergency Room. Private Burial. A Celebration of Jack’s life will be announced at a later date. In lieu of flowers, tributes may be offered to the SPCA or to the Animal charity of your choice.
