

John J. Lautermilch

John J. Lautermilch passed away peacefully at home surrounded by his loving family on the afternoon of Monday, June 6, 2016. John is survived by his wife, Annie; two daughters, Karen Lautermilch & David Carpenter (Oregon) and Lori Lautermilch (Victoria, BC) and one son, Doug & Pearl Lautermilch (Calgary, AB). John's third daughter, Brenda Lautermilch passed away suddenly on January 29th, 2001 in Calgary.

John has four grandchildren, Jeremy Klein (son of Brenda Lautermilch); Jonathan (son of Doug & Pearl) & Chantal Lautermilch (Calgary, AB); Janell Lautermilch (Calgary, AB daughter of Doug & Pearl) and fiancée, Simon Rocheleau; and Ben Lautermilch (Calgary, AB, son of Doug & Pearl) and one great grandchild, Matteo Lautermilch (son of Jonathan & Chantal), along with numerous extended family and numerous close friendships developed over many years. John was predeceased by his father, John Lautermilch in 1967, his mother, Amelia Lautermilch in 1970 and seven brothers and three sisters. John has one sister, Elsie Engel that lives in Regina, Saskatchewan.

John and Annie were married on September 23, 1948 in Woodrow, Saskatchewan and were 3.5 months away from celebrating an amazing 68 years of marriage. John was born in a farming community in Woodrow, Saskatchewan on December 31, 1918. He attended a local country school until graduation and moved on to complete a teaching degree at Normal School in Moose Jaw. John loved the community and being raised on a farm. Following a few years of teaching, he decided to be a farmer for his working life. In 1972, John began a new career with Saskatchewan Crop Insurance and was responsible for managing the Swift Current region.

John and Anne both enjoyed their lives in Swift Current but decided to move to Calgary, Alberta to retire. John was an adventurous soul and together with Annie they travelled to thirty seven countries and numerous cities around the world. John and Annie spent many warmer winters in California, Arizona and in Victoria. More recently, they moved back permanently to the irresistible warm climate and beautiful landscapes of Victoria.

We would like to thank our family and friends for all of their support and love during this time.

We will all miss you and always love you! Your Family.

A Visitation will be held at 12:00 Noon Saturday, June 11, 2016 at McCall's Family Chapel, Johnson and Vancouver Streets. A Funeral to be celebrated at 1:00 pm Saturday with a cortège through Beacon Hill Park on route to Royal Oak Burial Park for a Graveside Service and interment.
