

John (Jack) Pedlow

Born July 6, 1918 in Belfast, Northern Ireland and died at Saanich Peninsula Hospital on January 20, 2015. He served his country in the Royal Air Force in the Second World War stationed for 3 ½ years in Algeria. He met and married Vera, who served in the RCAF, in Belfast in 1949. They returned to Canada in 1951 and eventually settled in Sidney in 1956. It was here that Jack became an active member of the community, volunteering with the Boy Scouts and SANSCHA. He was a long-time member of Royal Canadian Legion Br. 37 and St. Andrew's Anglican Church.

Jack was predeceased by Vera, his devoted and loving wife, in 2005. He is survived by his son, Ken (Leslie) and his much loved grandchildren, Lindsay (Derek), Daniel and Michael. He will also be sadly missed by his dear friend, Ruth and niece, Pat (Larry).

The family would like to thank the caring and dedicated staff of Saanich Peninsula Hospital, St. Andrew's Church family for their pastoral care and his friends at St. Mary's and Holy Trinity Churches.

A Memorial Service will be held at St. Andrew's Anglican Church, 9691 Fourth Street, Sidney, on Wednesday, January 28 at 2:00pm, the Rev. Osita Oluigbo officiating. A reception will follow in the Church Hall.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Poppy Fund of the Royal Canadian Legion, Br. 37.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.
