

John (Jack) V.B. Hawthorne

"Gone Fishing in Heaven"

March 21, 1927 – February 7, 2014

Jack lived his childhood on Pandora and Blanshard Streets. He spent his entire life living and working in Victoria, running a rent-a-car business, working for the Better Business Bureau and numerous other enterprises. He leaves behind his loving wife, Rosemary; two sons, John and Ross, with daughters-in-law, Mary-Helen and Marie-Josée; two grandchildren, Amber and Justin; brother-in-law, Robin, and many nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his younger sister, Isabel. His love of fishing took the family on many trips into the Chilcotin and Cariboo areas to live in the wild and enjoy this province he loved. He passed along his love of the wilderness to his sons and grandchildren who will continue to explore B.C. in his memory.

A celebration of Jack's life will be held at St. Mary's Anglican Church, 1701 Elgin Road, Oak Bay on Saturday, February 15th at 1:30 pm with a reception to follow. In lieu of flowers, please make donations to the B.C. Cancer Society and/or B.C. Children's Hospital Foundation.
