

John William Carr

John William Carr passed away peacefully and suddenly on January 16, 2017. John was one of three children born to Dr. William and Maude Carr in Victoria, BC. Predeceased by his parents; sister, Elizabeth; brother-in-law, David; and brother, Frederick. John will be greatly missed by many long time close friends and family.

John was an avid hiking and mountaineer, having travelled extensively, reaching top peaks of many of the world's great mountains with travels throughout Nepal, Africa and Europe. His past times included sailing, photography, health sciences and nutrition, and many fond and enjoyable meals spent at the Oak Bay Marina.

At John's request, there will be no funeral services.

Condolences may be offered below.
