Kurt Everett Maichen

Kurt was born in Whitehorse, YT. He lived most of his life in Yukon, residing primarily in Watson Lake. A long time Yukon Government employee, he worked for both Highways and Airports. Recently, he resided in Lake Cowichan and Victoria and worked in Northern Alberta. He loved the outdoors and working with his hands. His proudest accomplishments were his cherished children.

He is predeceased by his parents, Hans and Louise and uncle, Wayne Brandt. He is survived by his wife, Jennifer, son, Nickolas Brandt, daughters, Sian Regan and Georgia Everett, sister in heart, Annemarie, brothers Kevin (Trudy) and Karl (Sheila), nephews, Owen and Kael.

It is with sad hearts we announce his passing. Kurt would want us to build a campfire, grab a beer and toast him. Please do.

Rest easy, Mr. M
