

Laurie Anne King (nee Barclay)

Born on March 17, 1934, in Guelph, Ontario, to James A. and Kathleen (Laurie) Barclay, and passed away in Victoria, B.C. on September 12th, 2017. Predeceased by beloved husband, John Richard (Rich) King in 2001, her parents, brother James D. Barclay and step-father Roy A. Gunn.

Survived by: Sisters-in-law Deborah King (Alberta) and Elizabeth Barclay, Parksville, B.C. Also survived by many nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends across Canada and the U.S.A. Also survived by little four-legged friend, Charlie. Seven other little friends are waiting at the Rainbow Bridge.

Laurie Anne grew up in Belleville and Port Arthur, Ontario, and with Rich, moved from what became Thunder Bay, Ontario to Selkirk, Manitoba then in 1973 to beautiful Victoria, B.C. which had been their home since.

Laurie Anne worked in the Health Care field for 35 years, in Thunder Bay, St. Boniface, and Victoria. She particularly enjoyed working in Quality Assurance with the medical and nursing staffs and meeting many good friends during her career.

After retirement, Laurie Anne and Rich traveled widely throughout Canada and the U.S.A., mainly in their 5th wheeler, and especially to their much loved "camp" (cottage) at Bay's End on Lake Superior near Thunder Bay.

A gathering of friends will be held in Victoria, BC. (date to be determined) and a graveside service and burial in Riverside Cemetery, Thunder Bay, at a later date.

If desired, a donation to the charity of your choice would be appreciated.
