Lorraine Edythe Worsley

Lorraine Edythe Worsley (née Smith), born on July 5, 1926, in Regina, Sask., peacefully passed away on December 13, 2023 at the age of 97 in Sidney, BC.

Lorraine will be remembered for her strength, independence, resilience and her loving, kind, caring, supportive, and generous nature.

Lorraine had a successful career as the first female Bank Manager at Scotiabank in BC. Her dedication and hard work paved the way for future generations in the banking industry.

Lorraine enjoyed various hobbies that brought her joy and fulfillment. She was an avid champion golfer, skilled square dancer, and enthusiastic bridge player. Lorraine also had a talent for sewing and had a passion for music.

Lorraine is survived by her son Russell (Camilla) and grandchildren Christie and Christopher. She is also survived by her daughter Doreen, grandchildren Connor and Liam, daughter-in-law Isabel, grandchildren Nicky and Dave, and great-grandchildren Jaime, Leah and Megan and great-great-granddaughter Annabel. She was preceded in death by her husband Dave, sons David and Billy and son-in-law John. Lorraine also leaves behind many nieces and nephews who will cherish her memory.

Lorraine Edythe Worsley will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

May she rest in eternal peace.
