Lorraine Jenkins (McDonald) passed away peacefully at Glengarry Private Hospital in Victoria, B.C. Predeceased by her husband, Fred Jenkins and her sister, Zetta, she is survived by her nephew, Don McDonald and great-niece, Megan McDonald both of Vancouver. She began her work career at Eaton's in Winnipeg and went on to work for many years at Paulin Chambers Biscuit Company and the Winnipeg School Board Library Services Division. Lorraine moved to Victoria in 2004 but while still living in Winnipeg, she loved her Friday outings with her dear friend, Sandy Glassey and when she moved to Victoria Sandy and Tom visited her every year taking in the sites of Victoria and the Lower Vancouver Island. She also looked forward to Victoria visits by Alma and Bob.
