

Major Pierre L. T. Boivin, CD (Rtd.)

With his wife by his side, Pierre quickly and peacefully passed away without further pain at the Salvation Army Sunset Lodge. He leaves to mourn his wife, Sylvia Boivin (née Stephens) and his three sons, Thomas J. C. Boivin (Regina), Michael G. Boivin (Victoria) and Mitch and his wife, Ruj (Calgary). Pierre is also survived by siblings, Nicole de Sampaio (partner Marc) – Gatineau, Denis Boivin (wife Collette) – Outaouais, and Claude (wife Mireille) – Saint-Félicien, as well as numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Pierre was a proud member of the Royal Canadian Air Force and most recently Flight Commander and Navigator for 407 Squadron, Comox, until a car accident left him severely brain-injured, changing his life and that of his family forever. A heartfelt tribute to the loving staff at the Salvation Army's Sunset Lodge, and to the profoundly kind Dr. J. A. Saffrey.

We will miss you always, Pierre, but we know that "HE will lift you up on Eagle's Wings."

The Funeral Mass will be conducted by Father Paul Szczur on Thursday, July 7, 2016 at 2:00 p.m. at Our Lady of the Rosary Church, 798 Goldstream Avenue, Langford. Interment will be at a later date at Royal Oak Burial Park.
