

Margaret Amelia “Peggy” Crawford

CRAWFORD, Margaret (Peggy) Amelia (nee Richards) Peggy passed away peacefully at home in Victoria, B.C. on November 29, 2009. Born on January 6, 1918 in Vancouver, B.C. she moved to Victoria as a young woman where she met and married her husband Alex Crawford who predeceased her in 1982. With Alex she developed a love for foreign travel, bridge and corgis. Peggy worked for Scuby Furs and Charmante's for a number of years. Peggy will be missed by her whole family including nieces Pat (Steve) Brown, Maureen (Larry) Hamblin, Anne (Ian) Batey, Ian (Valerie) MacMillan and Rachael (Steve) Moir; her great nieces and nephews Kelly, Aaron, Matthew (Jennifer), Gillian (Dominic), Jordan (Katrina), Andrea and Lindsay; goddaughter Rosalie; and her very good friend Beth McMahan as well as her many other caring friends and neighbours. The family would like to extend their gratitude to Bea, Gary, Helen and Dr. David Bell for their unwavering support and help over the years allowing Peggy to enjoy a full and engaging life.

A celebration of Peggy's life will be held at St. George's Anglican Church in Cadboro Bay (Saanich) at 3909 St. Georges Lane, on Wednesday, January 6, 2010 at 2 p.m. A reception will follow in the church hall. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to B.C. Guide Dog Services, 6050 44th Avenue, Delta, BC, V4K 3X7.
