

Margaret Jupp Gillingham

Margaret Jupp Gillingham

Margaret passed away peacefully on July 20, 2018, at the age of 97, at The Heights at Mt. View in Victoria, British Columbia. She was born in Seattle, Washington to Francis and Lillian (Neuenschwander) Jupp on August 28, 1920.

After finishing high school in Victoria, Margaret went on to a normal college, where she completed her teaching diploma. She was a teacher in Salmon Arm, British Columbia during the 1940s. After her marriage to John T. Gillingham, their family life began in Victoria. In 1959, the family moved to Bozeman, Montana and then to Clemson, South Carolina. She returned to her beloved Victoria in 1973, where she spent her remaining years. Margaret was known by name to many antiques, pet store, and thrift shop owners. She was a knowledgeable and passionate antique buff and collector of English and Oriental antiques. Her greatest loves were her children and her home port, Victoria.

She is survived by her children: Ted (Nancy), Robin Woods (Tim), and Charles (Jill); grandchildren: Jennifer (Glenn) McKay, Alexis (Wes) Hawkes, and Miles, Nolan and Orrin Gillingham; and great-grandchildren: Carter, Collin, Rory and Owen McKay, Liam and Paige Hawkes, and Alice Gillingham.

Margaret was preceded in death by her parents, her brothers Alan and Donald Jupp, her stepmother Ursula Edwards Jupp, and her stepsisters Josephine MacGregor and Nancy Hawkes.

The family will Celebrate Margaret's Life at a later date.

We would like to thank the staff of The Heights at Mt. View for their kind and supportive care of our mother.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.
